FOR THE SECOND PLACE

Democratic National Convention Adjourned Without Day Late Yesterday Afternoon—Time Turned Early in His Favor.

Denver, July 11.—The Democratic national convention concluded late yesterday afternoon by the nomination of John Worth Kern of Indiana, for vice-president completing the ticket on which William Jennings Bryan was made the nominee for president during the early hours of the morning. The nomination of Kern was made by acclamation, amid the resounding cheers of spectators and delegates. No ballot was necessary as the tide of sentiment had set irresistibly toward the Indiana candidate, state after state registering their delegations in his favor and all other candidates withdrawing before the universal demand for his nomination.

On the call of states, Indiana presented the name of Kern, Colorado through former Governor Thomas placed in nomination Charles A. Towne of New York, Connecticut presented Archibald McNeil and Georgia, Clark A. Howell. The names of Judge George Gray of Delaware and of John Mitchell of Illinois were not presented, owing to the explicit requests of these gentlemen not to have their names go before the convention.

For a time it looked as though a ballot would be required. But the steady line of states which joined in endorsing Kern's nomination soon made it apparent that the chances of all other candidates had been extinguished. Mr. Towne in person was the first candidate to recognize the decisive nature of the Kern speech, and as in a fitting speech he withdrew his name from consideration and pledged his support to the ticket of Bryan and Kern, withdrawals quickly followed from the supporters of Howell of Georgia and McNeil of Connecticut, leaving the Indiana candidate alone in the field.

The withdrawal of the Connecticut candidate was accompanied by a motion that the nomination of Kern be made by acclamation. The motion was carried with a deafening shout and the great assemblage brought in a clamorous demonstration on the accomplishment of its work and the completion of the Democratic national ticket. The nomination was made at 4:23 o'clock, and the convention thereupon adjourned without delay.

CANDIDATE MUCH PLEASED.

He Remained Away From The Convention Yesterday Afternoon.

Denver, July 11.—John W. Kern of Indiana, the nominee for vice-president on the Democratic ticket, received the news of the action of the convention, in his apartment in the Albany hotel. When early in the day matters began to shape themselves in his direction and his selection became almost a certainty, Mr. Kern determined that he would remain away from the session and accordingly his seat was occupied by an alternate.

"I am profoundly and gratefully of the honor which has been conferred upon me," said Mr. Kern when seen shortly after the convention adjourned. "I regard the honor all the greater because I did not seek the place nor did my delegation."

On the floor below the rooms occupied by Mr. Kern, the Indiana delegation headquarters were thronged with persons from all parts of the country who called to congratulate Indiana's representatives on the choice of the convention. Mr. Kern visited his headquarters and he was given an ovation.

HE IS SATISFIED.

Charles E. Murphy, Tammany Leader, on the Convention.

Denver, Colo., July 11.—Charles E. Murphy of New York, after the adjournment of the convention, said: "I am entirely satisfied with the work of the convention. Its enthusiasm, confidence and harmony were its distinguishing features. There can be no doubt but that the candidates nominated were the first choice of a large majority of the delegates and that the platform adopted is a declaration of the principles which the delegates heartily endorsed. To both platform and ticket the Democracy of New York will give sincere, united and I believe, most effective support."

"The grateful thanks of every delegate are due to the people of Denver for the marked hospitality with which every visitor was treated and the sacrifices made by the people for the convenience and convenience of those in attendance at the convention."

KILLED BY BATTED BALL.

John Faley, 16, Died at Bangor, N. Y.

Bangor, N. Y., July 11.—John Faley, 16, died at his home in this city at 10 o'clock last evening as a result of being hit on the head by a batted ball while playing baseball with other boys.

CAMPAIGN PUBLICITY ON
TRFT'S EXPLICIT ORDERSTreasurer Sheldon, After Conference
With Nominee, Says No Trifling
With New York Law Will Be Tolerated.

Hot Springs, Va., July 11.—Declaring that it was impossible to state at this time just how much money the Republican party will need for the coming campaign, George R. Sheldon, who has the big task of keeping the machinery oiled, was in conference here yesterday with Mr. Taft and Chairman Hitchcock, William Nelson Cromwell, who seconded things without talking much, and former Governor Franklin Murphy of the state of New Jersey, who also seemed to help things along. It may be said that the campaign automobile is just striking the nose out of the garage and Driver Taft has with him a very capable lot of mechanics who will stick to him in the race no matter how tough the going may be.

After his first talk with Judge Taft this morning Mr. Sheldon said he wanted to say to the public that in declaring itself for campaign funds publicity, the Republican party was most sincere. Mr. Taft has this point of policy very much at heart, and he impressed upon the treasurer the importance of standing firmly by the law under all circumstances.

These men are not ignorant of the fact that in some quarters the cry of "show me" will be raised because of an enormous idea that money collected and distributed outside of New York state will not have to be accounted for under the New York law.

"We are just as sincere in this matter as we can be," said Mr. Sheldon, "and I believe that the innovation will appeal to the best men of the country and place this campaign on a higher plane. If money is collected in a hundred localities, it must pass through one treasury and be accounted for by me."

OCCUPANTS OF AUTO
HURLED 100 FEETWoman Killed and Her Daughter Will Die as Result of Injuries Received.

Late Yesterday.

New York, July 11.—Emerging from a smoky roadway where the sound of an approaching train could not be heard, a big red automobile, carrying W. H. Hutchings of Brooklyn, his wife and daughter and a chauffeur was run down by a fast long island express late yesterday at Center Moriches, L. I., and the occupants of the machine were hurled a hundred feet into a field adjoining the railroad track. Mrs. Hutchings was dead when found and the physicians state that her husband will die of his injuries. Lillian Hutchings, the daughter, was seriously injured, while Frederick Clough, the chauffeur, was unhurt.

Declared James Wallace of Barre in Burlington Court.

Burlington, July 11.—James Wallace of Barre was in city court yesterday, charged with being a tramp. He pleaded not guilty and objected strenuously to being placed in the tramp class. A complaint alleging intoxication was made out against him and he pleaded guilty, the case against him for vagrancy being not pressed. He was fined $5 and costs of $5.95 for the drunk.

John E. Lamb Mentioned For Democratic Position.

Denver, Colo., July 11.—John E. Lamb of Terre Haute, Ind., is prominently mentioned for chairman of the Democratic national committee. The successful manner in which Mr. Lamb has done the convention just closed has endeared him to the delegates and he is being urged by many to accept the position. Mr. Lamb has made him prominent in the party and his friends are strongly urging him to handle the national campaign.

SIZE OF ESTATE NOT KNOWN

In the Will Mr. Cleveland Expressed the Wish That He Be Buried Where
He Died and That His Body
Remain There.

Trenton, N. J., July 11.—The will of former President Grover Cleveland has been probated. The probating took place at the home of Mrs. Cleveland in Princeton, Surrogate John W. Cornell going there for that purpose. Mr. Cornell did this out of consideration for Mrs. Cleveland, who did not care to come to the court house at Trenton.

The will is in Mr. Cleveland's own handwriting and makes no disclosure of the extent of his wealth. After some minor bequests and the creation of a fund of $10,000 for each of the four children, the remainder of the estate is left to Mrs. Cleveland. In his will Mr. Cleveland expressed the desire to be buried in the place where he died and that his body should not be removed unless it should be absolutely necessary in order to have it repose in the side of his wife.

Witnesses to the will are Professor Andrew E. West of Princeton and Professor John S. Finley, New York City, who were at Princeton and acknowledged to Surrogate Cornell that they had witnessed Mr. Cleveland's signature to the document.

Mrs. Cleveland is made executrix and Frank S. Hastings executor, under the will.

PLEADS FOR HIS SON.

Thomas Dixon, Jr., The Author, Goes to Court.

New York, July 11.—Thomas Dixon, Jr., evangelist and author of "The Clansman" and other novels, appeared in the Yorkville police court yesterday and asked Magistrate Steiner to discharge his son, who was arrested earlier in the day for an alleged violation of the automobile speed law. It was charged that young Dixon was running a machine on Lexington avenue at the rate of twenty miles an hour. His sister and two of her friends were in the machine at the time.

"I saw the automobile coming up the avenue at a fast clip, and just clocked it for a block or so to be absolutely sure that they were breaking the law," said Police Officer Charles Faber, who rides a motor cycle.

"Your Honor," spoke up the elder Dixon, "I permitted my son to go down to Coney Island last evening on my machine. I gave him strict instructions to return home not later than 12:30 o'clock. It was the parental warning that got him into trouble with the police. It came about in this way: He left the ocean resort with his sister and their companions in time to get home by 12:30 o'clock. Unfortunately the automobile broke down while crossing the Brooklyn bridge and that delayed him for an hour."

"A dilemma therefore confronted my son; should he comply with his father's request for his return within a certain hour or in doing so take chances on violating the law of the land? Or, should he at an hour when the streets are practically deserted of traffic go at a slow pace and fail to meet with the desires of his parents? My son did not wish to break the speed law and thought he was complying with all its provisions at the time he was arrested."

"Your observations, Mr. Dixon, do not refute the policeman's complaint," responded Magistrate Steiner. "However, they may be used in mitigation when the case comes up in special sessions, for which court I am obliged to hold him. I will accept you as bondsman if you desire to go security for him in $200 bail."

AMERICANS LEAD.

May Win the First Place in Olympic Shoot.

Bisley, England, July 11.—The first stage of the Olympic shooting competition ended yesterday afternoon with the American team in the lead, and its members are shooting so well that they appear to have an excellent chance for first place.

A strong wind was blowing over the range yesterday, which proved something of a puzzle to the marksmen on account of its variability. The American totals, though by no means records, are considered excellent in view of the weather conditions. The efficiency of the American team is a great surprise to the European experts gathered at the range.

The international team competitions are 200, 300, 500, 600, 800 and 1,000 yards, each team of six using the arms of their respective countries. Each team fires ninety rounds, fifteen per man, at each of the six distances. Because of the large number of teams competing, the contests will occupy two full days.

TO NO GOOD PURPOSE.

Were Three Men Handling Dynamite
So It Is Thought.

Rutland, July 11.—There now remains no question in the minds of the officials making the investigation into the accidental blowing up of three men at Proctor last week, that the men were preparing an explosive which they intended to use for unlawful purposes.

Some new evidence has been acquired which implicates them probably, with the robberies committed in the stations of the Rutland railroad at Proctor and Pittsford and the attempt at Fowler. One of the men, James Hill, is at the house of correction, being held for safe keeping, while the other two men, Bryson and Carter, are in such bad shape that they cannot leave the Proctor hospital.

When the men were first asked how long they had been in the vicinity of Proctor, they told a story about recently leaving Springfield, Mass., and coming in this direction looking for work. The officials conducting the investigation now have proof that the men had been in the vicinity of Proctor and Pittsford for two weeks. One of the officials stated yesterday: "There is almost no doubt that these men were the ones that committed the robberies, but the next question is to obtain the proof. We intend conducting a more minute investigation."

That the entire affair is being taken seriously is shown from the fact that private detectives are said to have been employed to look into the case. Yesterday a man who claimed to come from Boston was about the city with pictures of the men taken in their beds at the Proctor hospital, inquiring of the Rutland saloon keepers if they had served such men a week ago yesterday. None of the men were recognized here.

DEATH OF H. C. AYER.

Prominent Republican Was Postmaster

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m., at his home. The Rev. W. D. Douglas of the Methodist church will officiate and burial will be in Hillside cemetery.

He had been reappointed twice to this office. He was a member of the Methodist church of the Old Fellows the Republicans and the Independent Order of Foresters. He had always been a staunch Republican and prominent in the councils of the party. He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. John G. Sullivan of this village, Mrs. Addie M. Ayer, a teacher in the public schools of North Adams, Mass., and Gleucia Ayer, who is an assistant in the postoffice and resides at home. He also has one brother, Horace H. Ayer of this village.

DENIED THE HEALTH OFFICER.

So the Officer Reported to the State's Attorney.

Rutland, July 11.—State's Attorney Lawrence has been notified that when Health Officer Ball called at the home of William Cox of North street last Monday morning to notify Mr. Cox that the funeral of his little daughter Viola, who had died that morning, must be held before 7 o'clock the same night, as the disease she died with was "spotted fever," or cerebro-spinal meningitis, one of the worst contagious diseases known to the medical profession, Mr. Cox said he would do as he pleased, and he held the funeral as planned the following day at 4 o'clock. The funeral was public and largely attended, contrary to the orders issued by Dr. Ball.

The members of the Cox family declared that death was due to blood poisoning, but the death certificate issued by Dr. O. J. Gilchrist, the attending physician, gave the cause as "spotted fever."

MAJOR DELMAR SECOND

Wilkes Heart Was a Poor Third, Best

Time of the Day Was 2:06 1/2—
Delmar Made a Bad Standstill

Readville, Mass., July 11.—Sweet Marie won the free-for-all race at the Trotting England breeders' track for the trotting championship of the world yesterday, capturing the first and third heats, and losing the second to Major Delmar. Wilkes Heart was a poor third, excepting in the second heat, when he took second place after a hard struggle for the lead. The best time was made in the first heat, 2:06 1/2.

In the final heat, Major Delmar got away from the wire at top speed and led by a length at the quarter pole, but Andrew drove Sweet Marie hard in the back stretch and passing McDonald at the three-quarters, won easily.

Wilkes Heart had a slight advantage in the second until the home stretch was reached, when he weakened, allowing Major Delmar a handy win. Sweet Marie made a bad break soon after the field got the word and trailed behind, but coming home she barely missed beating Wilkes Heart for second place. The time for this heat was 2:08 1/2, the first half mile being covered in 1:02 3/4.

Major Delmar and Wilkes Heart raced like a team to the seven-eighths pole in the final heat with Sweet Marie trailing two lengths back. At this point Wilkes Heart began to weaken, while Andrew was coming very fast with Sweet Marie. The pair was at even terms with Major Delmar at the long distance, when Delmar suddenly made a standstill break, Sweet Marie having only to jog to the wire in an easy victory in 2:07 1/2. The summary:

Free-for-all Trot, Purse, $2,500.

Sweet Marie, by McKinney..... 1 3 1
Major Delmar, by McDonald..... 2 1 2
Wilkes Heart, by Steele..... 3 2 3

A BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

In Honor of Col. A. C. Brown at His Montpelier Home.

Surrounded by his children and grandchildren, Col. Andrew C. Brown celebrated yesterday at his home on Summer street, Montpelier, his 86th birthday. Colonel Brown was assisted in receiving his friends during the afternoon and evening by Mrs. Ella Brown Bailey, his daughter, Postmaster J. G. Brown of this city, and Rome G. Brown of Minneapolis, Minn., his sons. Yesterday forenoon Colonel Brown rode to Waterville in Postmaster Brown's automobile to call on relatives there. He was born in Sutton and during the Civil war was lieutenant-colonel of the 13th Vermont regiment. From 1854 to 1862, Colonel Brown was a foreman, business manager and editor of the Vermont Watchman. For many years he was the manager of the Bell Telephone company's lines in Vermont, retiring ten years ago with a handsome competency. Colonel Brown is a past department commander of the Vermont division of the Grand Army of the Republic, and ever since the war has been active in Grand Army work. He is also a member of the Vermont branch of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion. During the reception hours yesterday afternoon and evening the Montpelier Military band orchestra was in attendance and many of his old friends and neighbors called to warmly congratulate this active octogenarian and to wish him many more years of health and happiness.

last evening and today are E. L. Crawford, J. E. Wheeler, Springfield; H. F. Doe, South Newbury; J. W. Vaughan, Boston; George Gilman, Claremont, N. H.; Enrico Cril, Boston; S. C. Ward, Augusta, Me.

Empty pocketbooks continue to be found around the hotels at Montpelier, showing that pickpockets were at work here at the time of the Republican state convention ten days ago. Three days ago, three such pocketbooks were found in out of the way places at the Pavilion hotel and yesterday one was found behind a curtain radiator at the Montpelier hotel. So far as can be learned no one complained of having his pockets picked at that time, and the losers must have preferred to bear their loss in silence rather than to advertise the fact that some one had taken their money.

day Afternoon.

The pupils of Miss Maude Coburn gave a piano recital at her home on Orange street yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A delightful program was arranged by Miss Coburn and every selection was rendered in a very pleasing manner. All the pupils showed a marked improvement over last year under Miss Coburn's direction. After the program, a dainty collation was served, and a social hour was spent. At the close of the afternoon's entertainment, Miss Gladys Sutor, in behalf of the class, presented their teacher two beautiful pieces of hand-painted china, for which Miss Coburn responded.

BIG DROUTH
DRAWS WATERCity of Barre Will be Forced to Pump by Another Week

IF CONDITIONS CONTINUE

Electric Light Plants Are Seriously Handicapped and Are Being Forced Back Onto Their Steam
Plants for Power.

Although the present dry spell is pulling down the city water to a considerable extent Water Superintendent Russell stated today that it wouldn't be necessary to pump for another week. There has been no rainfall for four weeks, and the drouth is having a bad effect on vegetation, as well as on the water supply.

Unless heavy rains come soon, business will be seriously handicapped. The companies which are furnishing electric power are seriously hampered and are forced to fall back on their steam auxiliary plants.

Frequent complaints that the city ordinances regarding the preservation of the public health are being violated have come to the city council and to the local health board, and drastic action is threatened unless the violations are stopped. The local health board went out today on another expedition to examine alleged cases of nuisance. The chief nuisance complained of is the dumping of rubbish and refuse in the streams which flow through the city.

The lunch cart formerly operated by John Bolden in Depot square was condemned to-day as a nuisance by the board and was drawn to the meadow on Prospect street for the present. This is the same cart that caught fire the night of July third from a fire cracker. Mr. Bolden, the owner of the cart is thought to be in Cobalt, Quebec.

NO CANDIDATES AS YET.

For Election as Third Ward Alderman to Fill a Vacancy.

An election will probably be made by the city council next Tuesday night to fill the vacancy in the third ward, caused by the death of Alderman Walter Williams. As yet there have been no candidates advanced for the place, and the council therefore has not a wide field from which to choose. That fact is not bothering the electors, however, as they feel that they will be in a better position to select if not bothered by a lot of candidates.
